PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

5. Uso del presente perfecto

El present perfect es usado para:

a) Acciones que comenzaron en el pasado y que no han terminado aún en el presente

I have not slept in the past two days

No he dormido en los últimos 2 días

b) Acciones que comenzaron y acabaron en el pasado pero que su efecto continua en el presente.

I am not hungry because I have eaten an apple

No tengo hambre porque he comido una manzana

El matiz del ejemplo anterior es, que aunque hemos terminado de comer la manzana, esta acción tiene repercusión en el presente (no tenemos hambre en el presente por habernos comido la manzana)

I have bought a car

(Yo) he comprado un coche

El matiz de este segundo ejemplo es, que aunque la acción de comprar terminó, el coche nos sigue perteneciendo en el presente (continua el efecto de la acción).

c) Acciones que comenzaron y acabaron en el pasado pero que el interlocutor ha situado la acción en un intervalo de tiempo no acabado. Esta situación de la acción en un intervalo temporal no finalizado obliga a construir la oración en presente perfecto:

Intervalo temporal no finalizado (Present Perfect):

I have been in USA this year

He estado este año en Estados Unidos

Intervalo temporal finalizado (Past Simple):

I was in USA last year

Estuve el año pasado en Estados Unidos

d) Acciones que comenzaron y acabaron en el pasado pero que el interlocutor ha situado la acción en un intervalo de tiempo no acabado. Esta situación de la acción en un intervalo temporal no finalizado obliga a construir la oración en presente perfecto:

Intervalo temporal no finalizado (Present Perfect):

I have been in USA this year

He estado este año en Estados Unidos

Intervalo temporal finalizado (Past Simple):

I was in USA last year

Estuve el año pasado en Estados Unidos

 - My sister is due to arrive at 7.30 at the station.
- Be about to + infinitive to say that something is going to happen very soon.

REPORTED SPEECH

Direct & Indirect style

El "Reported speech" se usa para narrar con nuestras propias palabras lo que otra persona ha dicho. En español también existe y se llama "estilo indirecto". Os contamos como se forma:

- 1 El estilo directo y el estilo indirecto
- 2 Cambios en el "reported speech"
 - 2.1 Verbo de relato
 - 2.2 Tiempos verbales
 - 2.3 Pronombres personales
 - 2.4 Adverbios temporales
 - 2.5 Demostrativos
 - 2.6 Adverbio de lugar: "here"
- 3 That

El estilo directo y el estilo indirecto

El estilo directo se usa cuando nos expresamos con nuestros propios conocimientos:

The Earth is round

La Tierra es redonda

En cambio, el estilo indirecto es cuando narramos lo que otra persona ha dicho:

Columbus said that the Earth was round

Colón dijo que la Tierra era redonda

Cambios en el "reported speech"

Cuando construimos una oración en "reported speech" tenemos que realizar las siguientes tareas:

- Añadir un verbo de relato
- Cambiar tiempo verbal de la oración
- Cambiar pronombres personales
- Cambiar adverbios temporales
- Cambiar demostrativos
- Cambiar adverbios de lugar

Verbo de relato

Cuando construimos oraciones en "reported speech" tenemos que usar un verbo de relato. Los más frecuentes son:

Verbo	Significado
to tell	decir
to say	hablar
to ask	preguntar

to answer	contestar
to complain	quejarse

Por ejemplo:

She answered that she didn't know him very well

Ella contestó que no le conocía muy bien

Tiempos verbales

El tiempo verbal de una oración cambia cuando la convertimos a estilo indirecto. Aunque no nos hayamos dado cuenta también pasa en español.

Lo vemos mejor con un ejemplo,

Estilo directo (presente continuo):

I am working in a bank

Yo estoy trabajando en un banco

Estilo indirecto (pasado continuo):

He said that he was working in a bank

Él dijo que estaba trabajando en un banco

La tabla de conversión de tiempos verbales para el "reported speech" es:

Estilo Directo	Estilo Indirecto
Presente Simple	Pasado Simple
Presente Continuo	Pasado Continuo
Pasado Simple Present Perfect Pluscuamperfecto	Pluscuamperfecto
Pasado Continuo	Pluscuamperfecto continuo
Futuro Simple Condicional	Condicional

Pronombres personales

Los pronombres personales al pasar de estilo directo a indirecto cambian, y no es posible definir unas reglas fijas ya que dependen del contexto:

Si tomamos esta oración en estilo directo:

I lost my pen

Yo perdí mi lápiz

Existen varias posibilidades de estilo indirecto.

Si lo cuento yo mismo:

I said that I had lost my pen

Yo dije que había perdido mi lápiz

Si lo cuenta otra persona:

He said that he had lost his pen

Él dijo que había perdido su lápiz

o bien si me lo cuenta a mí:

You said that you had lost your pen

Tú dijiste que tú habías perdido tu lápiz

Como vemos los pronombres personales y los posesivos cambian al pasar de estilo directo a indirecto, y no hay reglas fijas sino tenemos que ver el contexto. Pero la suerte es que estos cambios se producen igualmente en español.

Adverbios temporales

Los adverbios temporales cambian al pasar de estilo directo a indirecto:

Estilo directo:

I must work today

Yo tengo que trabajar hoy

Estilo indirecto:

He said that he had to work that day

Él dijo que tenía que trabajar ese día

Los listamos os adverbios temporales más frecuentes y su transformación:

Estilo directo	Estilo indirecto
Now (ahora)	Then (entonces)
Today (hoy)	That day (ese día)
Yesterday (ayer)	The day before (el día anterior)
Tomorrow (mañana)	The following day (el siguiente día)
The next week (la semana que viene)	The following week (la siguiente semana)

Demostrativos

Ahora vamos a ver que el demostrativo "this" también cambia. Como siempre se ve mejor con un ejemplo:

Estilo directo:

I will buy this car

Me compraré este coche

Estilo indirecto:

He told me that he would buy that car

Él me dijo que se compraría ese coche

Estilo directo	Estilo indirecto
this (este)	that (ese)

Adverbio de lugar: "here"

Dependiendo del contexto el adverbio "here" (aquí) se puede transformar en "there" (allí), al igual que pasa en español.

Estilo directo:

I will never eat here again

Yo no comeré nunca aquí otra vez

Estilo indirecto:

She told me that she would never eat there again

Ella me dijo que ella no comería nunca otra vez allí

That

La partícula "that" es opcional, las oraciones son correctas tanto con "that":

He told me that he was single

Él me dijo que era soltero

como sin "that":

He told me he was single

Él me dijo que era soltero

Siendo el significado el mismo.

REPORTED SPEECH

- In direct speech we can report what someone says by using the same words of the speaker: He said, “I’m reading”.

- In reported speech we don’t repeat the same words of the speaker: He said that he was reading.

When we change from direct speech to reported speech:

- Commas disappear:

- “I’m going out with Mariah”, she said.
 - She said that she was going out with Mariah.

- Personal and possessive pronouns change:

- “I’ll give you my number”, he said.
 - He said that he would give me his number.

- Pronouns, demonstrative adjectives and adverbs of place change:

DIRECT SPEECH	REPORTED SPEECH
This	That
These	Those
Here	There

- Time expressions change:

DIRECT SPEECH	REPORTED SPEECH
Now	Then
Today / tonight	That day / that night
Yesterday	The day before
The day before yesterday	Two days before
Tomorrow	The next / following day
The day after tomorrow	Two days latter
Next week / month	The following week / month
Last week / month	The week / year before the previous week / year
Three hours ago	Three hours before

REPORTING VERBS

- To introduce indirect speech, we use verbs like: say, tell, admit, advise, agree, announce, apologize, beg, declare, explain, insist, invite, mention, offer, order, recommend, state and warn followed by that (but it is not necessary).
 - “I like motorbikes”.
 - Clara says (that) she likes motorbikes.

- Verbs such as: ask, beg, invite, offer, order, remind and tell go with an indirect complement and they have this structure:

- “Don’t forget my meeting tonight.”
- Clara reminded them about her meeting that night.
- “Would you like some presentation?”
- Clara offered them some presentation.

REPORTED STATEMENTS

Reporting verb + (that) + subject + verb

- In reported speech there is a backshift of tenses:

DIRECT SPEECH	REPORTED SPEECH
Present simple	Past simple
Present continuous	Past continuous
Past simple	Past perfect simple
Present perfect simple	Past perfect simple
Future simple (will)	Would
Can	Could
May	Might
Have to / must	Had to

ATTENTION!!

- Some verbs do not change:
 - Past perfect
 - Might
 - Could
 - Should
 - Mustn't

REPORTED QUESTIONS

- In Reported Speech the question becomes a statement and the word order is:
 - SUBJECT + VERB
- We do not need auxiliary “do” or question tags.
- As with reported statements, the verb changes into a more past tense:
 - “Is he a friend of yours?” ~~I~~ Stela asked whether/if he was a friend of mine.
 - “Who are you going out with?” ~~I~~ My mother asked me who I was going out with.

REPORTED COMMANDS, REQUESTS AND SUGGESTIONS

- There is no backshift of tenses with commands, requests and suggestions.

- Commands and requests are expressed by verbs: tell or ask + indirect complement + (not) to + infinitive:
 - “Don’t judge him too quickly.”  She asked me not to judge him too quickly.
 - Suggestions are expressed with the verb: suggest and one of these structures:
 - Reporting verb + (that) + subject + infinitive (without “to”)
 - Reporting verb + (not) verb + -ing

- “Why don’t we all go out together?”
 - I suggested (that) we all go out together.

PASSIVE

Passive & Active voice

Passive Voice – Voz Pasiva

Hablaremos en esta ocasión sobre un recurso gramatical de gran importancia en la lengua inglesa: la voz pasiva. Para comenzar estableceremos la diferencia con el lenguaje que utilizamos habitualmente llamado voz activa en el cual la acción del verbo recae sobre el sujeto mientras que en la voz pasiva la acción del verbo recae sobre el objeto. Observa los siguientes ejemplos:

Voz Activa

The lady buys a new hat.

La dama compra un sombrero nuevo.

(El verbo “comprar” recae sobre “la dama” indicando que ella es quien realiza la acción)

Voz Pasiva

A new hat is bought by the lady.

Un nuevo sombrero es comprado por la dama.

(En este caso interesa que “un nuevo sombrero es comprado” sin demasiada importancia de quien realiza la acción)

Para construir la voz pasiva es necesario que la oración en voz activa cuente con objeto directo, es decir que responda a la pregunta “¿qué cosa?”, por ejemplo:

My sister lost the keys.

Mi hermana perdió las llaves.

¿Qué cosa perdió mi hermana?

Las llaves (éste es el objeto directo)

Luego el objeto directo establecido pasará a ocupar el lugar de sujeto, el sujeto de la voz activa pasa a ser complemento agente acompañado de la preposición BY y el verbo principal se coloca en pasado participio acompañado por el verbo TO BE en el tiempo que se encuentra la voz activa. Por ejemplo:

My sister lost the keys.

The keys were lost by my sister.

Observe en la oración pasiva que “the keys” ocupan el lugar de sujeto, “by my sister” es el complemento agente y el verbo principal está ahora en pasado participio acompañado por el verbo to be (were) en pasado simple ya que la oración activa se encontraba en ese tiempo verbal.

Veremos en el siguiente cuadro como se modifican los verbos de Voz Activa a Voz Pasiva:

Tiempo Verbal de la oración en voz activa	VOZ ACTIVA	VOZ PASIVA
Presente Simple	My brother studies the lesson.	The lesson is studied by my brother.
Presente Continuo	My brother is studying the lesson.	The lesson is being studied by my brother.
Pasado Simple	My brother studied the lesson.	The lesson was studied by my brother.
Pasado Continuo	My brother was studying the lesson.	The lesson was being studied by my brother.
Futuro Simple	My brother will study the lesson.	The lesson will be studied by my brother.
Futuro Cercano	My brother is going to study the lesson.	The lesson is going to be studied by my brother.
Presente Perfecto	My brother has studied the lesson.	The lesson has been studied by my brother.
Pasado Perfecto	My brother had studied the lesson.	The lesson had been studied by my brother.

Tipos de pasiva

En inglés existen 2 tipos de pasiva:

- la pasiva de objeto directo
- la pasiva de objeto indirecto

Pasiva de objeto directo

El objeto directo de la oración activa pasa a ser el sujeto de la oración pasiva:

Voz activa:

Sujeto AGENTE	Verbo VOZ ACTIVA	C. Directo PACIENTE
Luis	buys	a book
Luis	compra	un libro

Voz pasiva:

Sujeto PACIENTE	Verbo VOZ PASIVA	Complemento PACIENTE
A book	is bought	by Luis
Un libro	es comprado	por Luis

Pasiva de objeto indirecto

Este tipo de pasiva no existe en español. Es usada cuando se quiere destacar el complemento indirecto en lugar del complemento directo.

Voz activa:

Sujeto AGENTE	Verbo VOZ ACTIVA	Complemento Directo	C. Indirecto
I	offer	a job	to Tom
Yo	le ofrezco	un trabajo	a Tom

Voz pasiva:

Sujeto PACIENTE	Verbo VOZ PASIVA	Complemento Directo	Complemento PACIENTE
Tom	is offered	a job	(by me)
A Tom	le es ofrecido	un trabajo	(por mi)

Verbos con doble objeto

Los verbos que tienen objeto directo e indirecto construyen la pasiva normalmente con el objeto indirecto.

Los ejemplos típicos de verbos con 2 objetos son:

Verbo	Significado
ask	preguntar
give	dar
offer	ofrecer
order	pedir
pay	pagar
sell	vender
send	enviar
show	mostrar
tell	decir

PASSIVE

Passive & Active voice

PASSIVES

Object + to be + past participle (+ subject)

Sentences can be in active or passive. We use active verb to say what the subject does and a passive to say what happens to the subject.

However, in a passive sentence, the main important component in the sentence is the object, that's why the object goes in the first place followed by the verb and sometimes the subject.

We use passive:

- To focus the attention on the object of an action and establish the topic of a sentence.
- To be impersonal in a scientific or technical process.
- When the agent of the action is not known, generic or obvious for the context, or unimportant, or is intentionally not named.
- To refer back to the previous sentence in a text.

TENSE	ACTIVE	PASSIVE
Present simple	I see your friend	Your friend is seen (by me)
Present continuous	I am seeing your friend	Your friend is being seen (by me)
Past simple	I saw your friend	Your friend was seen (by me)
Past continuous	I was seeing your friend	Your friend was being seen (by me)
Present perfect simple	I have seen your friend	Your friend has been seen (by me)
Present perfect continuous	I have been seeing your friend	Your friend has been being seen (by me)
Past perfect simple	I had seen your friend	Your friend had been seen (by me)
Future simple(will)	I will see your friend	Your friend will be seen (by me)
Future perfect simple	I will have been seen your friend	Your friend will have been seen (by me)
Future (going to)	I'm going to see your friend	Your friend is going to be seen (by me)

ATTENTION!!

- Only transitive verbs (verbs with an object) can be made passive. Some transitive verbs cannot be made passive: become, fit, get, have, lack, let, like, resemble, suit.
- Verbs with two objects: There are sentences which contain two objects, in these cases, we can make the passive using both objects, so we are able to make two different passive sentences:

They gave Maria a prize

Obj.1 Obj.2 Maria was given a prize
 A prize was given to Maria

Most common verbs with more than one object:

Ask, bring, give, lend, offer, pass, pay, promise, sell, send, show, teach, tell...

PRESENT SIMPLE

El Presente Simple en Inglés

El "present simple" es el tiempo verbal más sencillo e importante de la lengua inglesa. En esta lección vamos a explicar cómo se forma y cuando se usa:

- 1 Conjugación del presente simple
 - 1.1 Caso especial: "-es" para la 3^a persona
 - 1.2 Caso especial: "-ies" para la 3^a persona
- 2 La negación en el presente simple
- 3 La interrogación en el presente simple
- 4 Uso del presente simple
- 5 Casos especiales
 - 5.1 Verbo irregular "to be"
 - 5.2 Los verbos modales

Conjugación del presente simple

La construcción del presente simple (Present Simple) en inglés es realmente fácil, tiene la estructura:

[SUJETO] + [VERBO] (en infinitivo sin to)

A tener en cuenta:

Si el sujeto es 3^a persona del singular se le añade una "-s" al verbo.

Veamos como ejemplo la conjugación del verbo "to live" (vivir) en presente simple:

Conjugación	Significado
I live	yo vivo
you live	tú vives
he / she / it lives	él / ella / ello vive
we live	nosotros vivimos
you live	vosotros vivís
they live	ellos/ellas viven

Caso especial: "-es" para la 3^a persona

Para los verbos acabados en "-o", "-sh", "-ch", "-ss", "-x", "-z", "-y" se añade "-es" en lugar de "-s" para la 3^a persona del singular".

Veamos a continuación algunos ejemplos:

Verbo	Tercera persona	Significado
to go	he goes	él va
to wish	he wishes	él desea
to reach	he reaches	él alcanza
to express	he expresses	él expresa
to fix	he fixes	él arregla
to kiss	he kisses	él besa
to buzz	he buzzes	él murmulla

Caso especial: "-ies" para la 3^a persona

Adicionalmente, los verbos acabados en "-y" cuando la "y" no es precedida de una vocal, forman la tercera persona en "-ies".

Verbo	Tercera persona	Significado
to occupy	he occupies	él ocupa
to study	he studies	él estudia

Pero cuidado si la "-y" es precedida por una vocal, la tercera persona se forma con una "-s" (desinencia estándar)

Verbo	Tercera persona	Significado
to buy	he buys	él compra

La negación en el presente simple

La negación con los verbos plenos (esto es no modales y no auxiliares) también es fácil:

[SUJETO] + do(es) + not + [VERBO]

I do not sing

Yo no canto

He does not sing

Él no canta

They do not play

Ellos no juegan

En inglés el "do + not" se contrae a "don't" y "does + not" se contraen a "doesn't".

I don't sing

Yo no canto

He doesn't sing

Él no canta

They don't play

Ellos no juegan

La interrogación en el presente simple

En las oraciones interrogativas también se hace uso del verbo auxiliar to do. Anteponiéndolo al sujeto.

La estructura de las preguntas cerradas o de yes/no (es decir aquellas que no tienen partícula interrogativa) es:

do(es) + [SUJETO] + [VERBO] ?

Do you like music?

¿Te gusta la música?

Does he speak English?

¿Él habla inglés?

La estructura de las preguntas abiertas (es decir aquellas que tienen partícula interrogativa) es:

[PARTÍCULA INTERROGATIVA] + do(es) + [SUJETO] + [VERBO] ?

Why do you like music?

¿Por qué te gusta la música?

When do you come back?

¿Cuándo vuelves?

Uso del presente simple

El "presente simple" se usa para:

- Rutinas

I work in a silver mine

Trabajo en una mina de plata

- Situaciones permanentes

She has a car

Ella tiene un coche

- Leyes naturales o físicas

The Sun appears in the East

El Sol sale por el este

Casos especiales

Verbo irregular "to be"

Un caso especial es el verbo to be que al ser muy irregular hay que memorizar su conjugación:

Conjugación	Significado
I am	yo soy
you are	tú eres
he is she is it is	él es ella es ello es
we are	nosotros somos
you are	vosotros sois
they are	ellos/ellas son

Los pronombres personales y el verbo "to be" se contraen en las formas que mostramos a continuación:

Conjugación	Significado
I'm	yo soy
you're	tú eres
he's she's it's	él es ella es ello es
we're	nosotros somos
you're	vosotros sois
they're	ellos/ellas son

El verbo to be forma la negación y la interrogación sin necesidad del verbo auxiliar to do

Los verbos modales

Los verbos modales can, must, may :

- no añaden la "-s" en la 3^a persona.
- forman la negación y la interrogación sin verbo auxiliar.

PRESENT SIMPLE

STRUCTURE: base form of verb + -s in 3rd person singular

- Use present simple for things that are always true or happen regularly.
- Remember the spelling rules.
- Use ASI (Auxiliary + Subject + Infinitive) or QUASI (Question word + Auxiliary + Subject + Infinitive) to help you with word order in questions.
- Put the adverbs of frequency before the main verb and after be: We always meet at 9 o'clock.
- Frequency expressions like every day usually go at the end of the sentence: We speak on the phone every day.

In the 3rd person singular (he, she, it) we add an -s at the end of the verb, e.g. eats, lives, sings.

We use the auxiliary do/does in negative and interrogative statements.

- Affirmative: Subject + infinitive verb
- Negative: Subject + do not/does not + infinitive verb
- Interrogative: Do/Does + subject + infinitive verb

SPELLING RULES

Normally, in present simple tense we add -s at the end of the verb in the 3rd person singular (he, she, it), but there are some special cases:

- If the verb ends in -ss, -x, -ch, -sh or the letter o, we add -es, e.g.
 - Kiss z kisses
 - Watch z watches
 - Crash z crashes
 - Go z goes
- If the verb ends in a consonant + -y, we remove the “y” and add -ies, e.g.
 - Carry z carries
 - Study z studies

	AFFIRMATIVE	NEGATIVE	INTERROGATIVE
I	work	don't work	Do I work?
You	work	don't work	Do you work?
He/She/It	works	doesn't work	Does he/she/it work?
We	work	don't work	Do we work?
You	work	don't work	Do you work?
They	work	don't work	Do they work?

CONTINUOUS PRESENT

- El Presente Continuo en Inglés

- 1 Conjugación del presente continuo
- 2 Construcción del gerundio
- 2.1 Gerundio en verbos acabados en -ie
- 2.2 Gerundio en verbos acabados en -e
- 2.3 Doblado de la consonante final en la formación del gerundio
- 3 La negación en el presente continuo
- 4 La interrogación en el presente continuo
- 5 Uso del presente continuo

1. CONJUGACIÓN DEL PRESENTE CONTINUO

InglésSencillo.com

the sheep is running

La estructura del presente continuo (Present Continuous) en inglés es sencilla:

[SUJETO] + am/are/is (verbo to be) + [VERBO CON -ING (gerundio)]

Conjugación	Significado
I am singing	yo estoy cantando
you are singing	tú estás cantando
he is singing	él está cantando
we are singing	nosotros estamos cantando
you are singing	vosotros estáis cantando
they are singing	ellos están cantando

2. CONSTRUCCIÓN DEL GERUNDIO

Como norma general para formar el gerundio en inglés se añade "-ing".

Aunque hay que tener en cuenta unas consideraciones:

Gerundio en verbos acabados en -ie

Se sustituye la terminación "-ie" por "-ying".

Verbo	Gerundio
die	dying
lie	lying

Gerundio en verbos acabados en -e

Se sustituye la "-e" final por "-ing"

Verbo	Gerundio
use	using have	having

Doblado de la consonante final en la formación del gerundio

Numerosos verbos doblan su consonante final para formal el gerundio:

Verbo	Gerundio
get	getting
set	setting
forbid	forbidding

Para que se realice el doblado se tienen que cumplir estas 3 condiciones:

Que la palabra acabe en una única consonante (que no sea r, w, x ó y) [ejemplo: set]

Que la última consonante sea precedida de una única vocal. [ejemplo: let]

Que la palabra sea monosílaba o que recaiga el acento en la última sílaba o bien que termine la palabra en "L"

3. La negación en el presente continuo

La negación con los verbos plenos (esto es no modales y no auxiliares) es muy simple:

[SUJETO] + am/are/is (verbo "to be") + not + [VERBO CON -ING (gerundio)]

I am not singing

yo no estoy cantando

he is not singing

él no está cantando

Nota: Es habitual contraer el verbo "to be" y "not"

4. La interrogación en el presente continuo

Para construir la interrogación simplemente hay que invertir el orden del sujeto y del verbo to be:

Estructura de la interrogación:

am/are/is + [SUJETO] + [VERBO CON "-ing"]?

Conjugación	Significado
am I singing?	¿estoy cantando?
are you singing?	¿estás cantando?
is he singing?	¿está cantando?
are we singing?	¿estamos cantando?
are you singing?	¿estáis cantando?
are they singing?	¿están cantando?

Los verbos regulares acabado en "-e" forman su participio añadiendo simplemente una "-d".

Verbo	Participio	Significado
to use	used	usar
to excuse	excused	disculpar

3. La negación en el presente perfecto

La negación en el present perfect no tiene ninguna complicación. Su estructura es simplemente:

[SUJETO] + have/has + not + [VERBO EN PARTICIPIO]

He has not played well

Él no ha jugado bien

I have not eaten in 2 days

(Yo) no he comido en 2 días

4. La interrogación en el presente perfecto

Se construye la interrogación invirtiendo el orden de sujeto y verbo to have. Es decir:

Have/has + [SUJETO] + [VERBO EN PARTICIPIO]?

Conjugación	Significado
have I done?	¿he hecho?
have you done?	¿has hecho?
has he done?	¿ha hecho?
have we done?	¿hemos hecho?
have you done?	¿habéis hecho?
have they done?	¿han hecho?

Si la oración tuviera una partícula interrogativa la forma sería:

[PARTÍCULA INTERROGATIVA] + have + [SUJETO] + [VERBO EN PARTICIPIO]?

What have you done?

¿Qué has hecho?

5. Uso del presente perfecto

El present perfect es usado para:

a) Acciones que comenzaron en el pasado y que no han terminado aún en el presente

I have not slept in the past two days

No he dormido en los últimos 2 días

b) Acciones que comenzaron y acabaron en el pasado pero que su efecto continua en el presente.

I am not hungry because I have eaten an apple

No tengo hambre porque he comido una manzana

El matiz del ejemplo anterior es, que aunque hemos terminado de comer la manzana, esta acción tiene repercusión en el presente (no tenemos hambre en el presente por habernos comido la manzana)

I have bought a car

(Yo) he comprado un coche

El matiz de este segundo ejemplo es, que aunque la acción de comprar terminó, el coche nos sigue perteneciendo en el presente (continua el efecto de la acción).

- c) Acciones que comenzaron y acabaron en el pasado pero que el interlocutor ha situado la acción en un intervalo de tiempo no acabado. Esta situación de la acción en un intervalo temporal no finalizado obliga a construir la oración en presente perfecto:

Intervalo temporal no finalizado (Present Perfect):

I have been in USA this year

He estado este año en Estados Unidos

Intervalo temporal finalizado (Past Simple):

I was in USA last year

Estuve el año pasado en Estados Unidos

6. Partículas usadas en "Present Perfect"

> Just (acabar de)

Just se usa en "Present Perfect" para decir que una acción acaba de ser terminada:

we have just eaten and we are not hungry

Nosotros acabamos de comer y no tenemos hambre

> Already (ya)

Already significa "ya", pero sólo con oraciones afirmativas y en Present Perfect:

I have already ordered the books

ya he pedido los libros

> Yet (ya o todavía)

Yet en "Present Perfect" significa "ya" en oraciones interrogativas y "todavía" en negativas :

Have you ordered her book yet?

¿Ya has pedido su libro?

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

STRUCTURE: subject + have/has been + verb -ing

- Use the present perfect continuous with for and since with action verbs.
 - Use the present perfect continuous for actions which have been doing on very recently. They have usually just stopped.

We use present perfect continuous for:

- Showing that something started in the past and has continued up until now. We can use time expressions as “for five minutes”, “since Tuesday”, etc. They have been talking for the last hour.
- Showing actions which have just stopped (though the whole action can be unfinished) and have a result, which we can often see, hear, or feel, in the present (focus on action). I've been running, so I'm really hot.

ATTENTION!

Difference between present perfect and past simple:

- Use the present perfect simple when there is a connection between the past and the present.
 - Use the past simple to ask or talk about finished actions in the past, when the time is mentioned or understood. We often use a part time expression (January, last week...).

	AFFIRMATIVE	NEGATIVE	INTERROGATIVE
I	have been working	haven't been working	Have I been working...?
You	have been working	haven't been working	Have you been working...?
He/She/It	has been working	hasn't been working	Has he/she/it been working...?

- 1.3 Pasado en verbos acabados en "-e"
- 2 La negación en el pasado simple
- 3 La interrogación en el pasado simple
- 4 Uso del pasado simple
- 5 Complementos Temporales

1. Conjugación del pasado simple

Conjugación	Significado
I worked	yo trabajé
you worked	tú trabajaste
he worked	él trabajó

we worked	nosotros trabajamos
you worked	vosotros trabajasteis
they worked	ellos trabajaron

1.1. Construcción del pasado

Como norma general, para formar el pasado en inglés se añade "-ed" a un verbo.

work → worked

Aunque hay que tener en cuenta unas consideraciones:

1.2. Verbos irregulares

Para los verbos irregulares hay que memorizar su forma de pasado.

Os mostramos un par de ejemplos de verbos irregulares:

Verbo	Pasado	Significado
to go	went	ir
to buy	bought	comprar
to have	had	tener
to be	was/were	ser o estar

I went to the University of Oxford
Fui a la universidad de Oxford

1.3. Pasado en verbos acabados en "-e"

Para formar el pasado se sustituye la "-e" final por "-ed".

Verbo	Pasado
use	used
die	died

2. La negación en el pasado simple

La formación de la negación en "past simple" es más sencilla que la afirmación.

Su estructura es:

[SUJETO] + did + not + [VERBO EN INFINITIVO (sin to)]

Os mostramos un par de ejemplos:

I did not sing

yo no canté

he did not sing

él no cantó

3. La interrogación en el pasado simple

Para construir la interrogación se utiliza el verbo auxiliar to do en pasado (did).

La Estructura es:

Did + [SUJETO] + [VERBO EN INFINITIVO (sin to)] ?

Conjugación	Significado
did I sing?	¿canté?
did you sing?	¿cantaste?
did he sing?	¿cantó?
did we sing?	¿cantamos?
did you sing?	¿cantasteis?

did they sing?

¿cantaron?

Si la interrogación tuviera una partícula interrogativa la estructura sería

[PARTÍCULA INTERROGATIVA] + did + [SUJETO] + [VERBO EN INFINITIVO]?

What did you sing?

¿Qué cantaste?

4. Uso del pasado simple

El "past simple" se usa para:

- Acciones que comenzaron en el pasado y ya están terminadas.

I ate an apple yesterday

Me comí una manzana ayer

5. Complementos Temporales

Usualmente con las oraciones en "pasado simple" es necesario detallar cuando se realizó la acción (de manera explícita o por el contexto).

Por ejemplo:

I played a match last week

Jugué un partido la semana pasada

Enumeramos algunos otros complementos temporales de este tiempo verbal a modo de ejemplo:

Complemento	Significado
yesterday	ayer

in 2008	en 2008
last year	hace un año
on 01/01/2000	el 01/01/2000

FUTURE SIMPLE: WILL

El Futuro Simple en Inglés

Cita del escritor francés Victor Hugo (1802 – 1885):

The future has several names.
For the weak, it is impossible.
For the fainthearted, it is unknown;
but for the valiant, it is opportunity

El futuro tiene muchos nombres.
Para los débiles es lo inalcanzable.
Para los temerosos, lo desconocido;
pero para los valientes, es la oportunidad

- 1 Conjugación
 - 1.1 Negación en el Futuro simple
 - 1.2 Interrogación en el futuro simple
 - 2 Uso del futuro simple

1. Conjugación

El futuro simple (Future Simple) en inglés se forma con la estructura:

SUJETO + will/shall + VERBO

Nota: El auxiliar shall sólo se utiliza para la primera persona de singular y del plural. Mientras que el auxiliar will se puede utilizar en todos los casos.

Como ejemplo de la conjugación del futuro simple, veamos el verbo to work (trabajar):

Conjugación	Significado
I will/shall work	yo trabajaré

you will work	tú trabajarás
he will work	él trabajarás
we will/shall work	nosotros trabajaremos
you will work	vosotros trabajareis
they will work	ellos trabajarán

En inglés son muy frecuentes las contracciones

Los pronombres y el auxiliar will se contraen en las siguientes formas:

Conjugación	Significado
I'll work	yo trabajaré
you'll work	tú trabajarás
he'll work	él trabajará
we'll work	nosotros trabajaremos
you'll work	vosotros trabajareis
they'll work	ellos trabajarán

X Negación en el Futuro simple

La negación del futuro se realiza simplemente añadiendo el adverbio not entre el auxiliar will y el verbo:

SUJETO + will + not + VERBO

Conjugación	Significado
I will/shall not work	yo no trabajaré
you will not work	tú no trabajarás
he will not work	él no trabajará

CONDITIONALS

0. ZERO CONDITIONAL

Use zero conditional when you want to express general truths/facts:

If + subject + present simple, subject + present

If you heat ice, it melts.

- If it rains, the grass gets wet.

ATTENTION!!

If and when have the same meaning in the zero conditional:

- If / When I look after plants, they die.*

1. FIRST CONDITIONAL

If + subject + present simple, subject + will/won't +

- Use first conditional to talk about possible or likely future result.
- To talk about things that are possible, but not certain. The main clause says what we think the result will be in this situation.
 - If you come early, you will get a parking space.
 - If I see her, I will tell her.

ATTENTION!!

- Unless = if...not
 - I won't go unless she invites me. = I won't go if she doesn't invite me.
- We can use might instead of will in the main clause to mean "will perhaps".

2. SECOND CONDITIONAL

If + subject + past simple, subject + would/wouldn't + infinitive.

- Use second conditional to talk about hypothetical/imaginary situation in the present or future and its consequence.
- We often use it to talk about the opposite of what is true or real.
 - If I had more money, I would buy a bigger house.
 - I wouldn't do that job unless they paid me a really good salary.
 - If he won the lottery, he would buy a car.
- To talk about something in the present which is impossible, because it is not true.
 - If I had her number, I would call him. (But it is not possible because I don't have her number).

ATTENTION!!

- We can use could instead of would in the main clause to talk about ability or possibility.
- We can use might instead of would in the main clause to mean “would perhaps”.

3. THIRD CONDITIONAL

If + subject + had + past participle, subject + would/wouldn't + have + past participle.

- Use third conditional to talk about hypothetical/imaginary situation in the past (which didn't happen) and its consequence.
 - If I had gone to the party, I would have met your friend.
 - If the ship hadn't hit an iceberg, it wouldn't have sunk.

ATTENTION!!

- We can also use could, should, might and may in the main clause to mean “would perhaps”.
 - If Shakespeare had lived longer, he might have written poesy.
